Rich on features and content, World Of Cubes challenges you to a game of survival on the infinite map. Discover much needed resources, craft new items and build shelter to survive through the night. You can create your world alone or join forces to create in unison with other online players in real-time. Infinite possibilities await with limitless potential for your creative, constructional and survival needs. Watch out for the Zombies and pumpkin heads!

In World Of Cubes, players can either join one of the existing 1000+ maps on the server or they can create their own map/world, upload it on to the server and start playing with friends. They can also password protect own maps/worlds so that only friends can play them online. Or they can upload their worlds in the read-only mode – where all other players can only view it but not modify.
